CORPORATE CANYONING EXPERIENCES

A full-page background photograph showing four people participating in a canyoning activity. They are wearing blue helmets and safety gear, and are positioned in a river, surrounded by splashing water. The person in the foreground is smiling broadly at the camera. The background is slightly blurred, emphasizing the action and the participants.

KNOW THEY NEEDED.”

WHY CANYONING IS EXACTLY WHAT YOUR TEAM NEEDS

Located in Squamish, just 50 minutes from Vancouver, West Coast Canyoning Adventures (WCCA) offers a unique team-building experience that builds collaboration, communication, and leadership. Step out of the office and into a breathtaking rainforest, where your team will explore turquoise pools, granite cliffs, and lush, fern-filled canyons.

With certified instructors leading the way, your group will take on thrilling challenges—rappelling waterfalls, scrambling over rocky terrain, and, for the bold, leaping into crystal-clear pools.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE TEAM-BUILDING DAY

REAL ADVENTURE. REAL IMPACT. REAL BENEFITS FOR YOUR TEAM.

- ✓ Certified Safety & Expertise: Since 2019, we've maintained a flawless safety record thanks to professional guides, top-tier equipment, and rigorous protocols.
- ✓ Tailored for All Levels: Beginner to advanced options are adaptable to your team's goals.
- ✓ Leadership in Action: We assign rotating roles, such as rope management, navigation, and safety, giving everyone a chance to step up.
- ✓ Problem-Solving: You and your team will face real-time challenges that demand critical thinking, quick decision-making, and agile adaptation, just like in the workplace.
- ✓ Nature-Driven Experience: Immersive time in wild, natural environments that recharges mental clarity, boosts creativity, and enhances overall team well-being.
- ✓ Unforgettable Fun: We wouldn't do this if it wasn't a blast! Expect smiles, laughter, and plenty of stories to bring back to the office.

TEAM-BUILDING CANYON QUEST

Private Corporate Day Trip Overview

This private canyoning trip offers corporate teams a unique way to connect, collaborate, and recharge through a guided outdoor challenge tailored to your group's fitness and comfort level—no prior experience needed.

Activity Details: After a full gear fitting and safety orientation, your team will receive a hands-on rope skills session before starting the descent. The route includes guided rappels down waterfalls,, scrambling over rocks, and optional cliff jumps. A complimentary hot beverage will be served at a scenic rest point during the trip.

What We Provide:

- Certified private guides (low guest-to-guide ratio)
- All technical gear: wetsuit, helmet, harness, canyoning shoes
- Safety instructions and support throughout the experience
- Hot drink during the descent
- Photos and videos (when conditions allow)

Participant Info: Participants must be in good health and comfortable with water and heights. Life jackets are available for non-swimmers. A digital waiver and intake form are required before the activity.

Rates & Booking: Pricing varies based on group size, trip duration, and selected add-ons.

Optional Add-Ons: Enhance your experience with coffee and pastries at check-in, catered lunches or BBQs, VIP transportation, custom-branded gear, and a professional media package.

LET'S CREATE A CUSTOM CANYONING ADVENTURE THAT ELEVATES YOUR TEAM.
